Resuming racing again, the Evening Series is slated for July 12 and alternate Wednesday evenings thereafter.

What could be a more fitting climax to a busy month than two regattas? First the Junior Regatta is making its initial bow on July 28, and the next day MYC stages its colorful Annual Regatta (both races and Dinner Dance).

NOTE TO JULY 4th HANDICAP SKIPPERS

If you did not enter Handicap Races last year or the '72 Memorial Day Race, the Race Committee would appreciate it if you would fill out the racing form on page 6 of the May 10th issue of the Presto Press and mail it as soon as possible to John Malcolm, Brandt Beach, Mattapoisett, or call the race chairman, 758-2123, for a list of the information necessary for correct handicapping.

Bierstadt Exhibition

PAINTING EXHIBIT AT WHALING MUSEUM

An exhibit, now in progress, at the New Bedford Whaling Museum is a most unusual opportunity for area people to see the Western United States through the eyes of a great painter. The artist, Bierstadt, was a New Bedford native who went west to find the sweeping panorama and atmospheric effects that he so excelled at capturing in oil. The paintings that are in this exhibit are loaned from museums and collections all over the country so that this is a one time opportunity to see this particular collection in one place. Some of the canvases are huge and many are small. Yet, Bierstadt manages to work in both scales equally well. The detail of foliage and the illusion of mist, storm, sunrise, twilight, every mood of the natural environment are beautifully done. Some of the vistas must run for 40 or 50 miles. The grandeur of our country in its natural unspoiled state has seldom been recorded better and can never be done again. Yosemite was a favorite painting ground for the artist. The viewer, therefore, has a double treat. For an admirer of good painting, the pleasure is in the creation of the marvelous illusions. At the same time, the viewer must stand in awe before the bountiful riches of our great country, which this artist saw before him and captured so skillfully. It is a magnificent collection and deserving of anyone's attention. The paintings can be viewed during the museum hours of 9 to 5 Monday through Saturday, 1 to 5 Sunday and will run through July 5th.

AUCTION AND SUMMER FAIR

Sippican '72, the Marion Congregational Church's auction and summer fair, scheduled to stretch over a two-week period in July, is now in the full preparatory stage with a score of committees at work.

The all-day auction is scheduled for Saturday, July 8th, starting at 10 A.M., with Lakeville's "Colonel" Florence Cornell at the block. It will be held in one of the big buildings at Barden's Boat Yard, down by the bandstand, where ample parking is available and refreshments will be served all day.

The Fair itself, offering attractions for all ages, will be held Saturday, July 22nd, on the church grounds and adjacent areas. Main Street from School to Front will be blocked off for the event.

The Fair's traditional Sidewalk Cafe, with the new name of Chapel Cafe, this year will dispense its luscious lobster salad rolls and other viands under cover from sun or shower, in the new Congregational Community Center Hall. About 50 pounds of lobster meat, cooked recently in one of the church member's backyard, is in deep freeze awaiting the day. Various other salad rolls will be on the extensive menu.

Committees, under the general chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. L. Howard Carl, Jr., and their chairmen are: Auction, Theodore W. Lacey and Merrill Worthen; refreshments at auction, Mrs. Russell E. Nilson; books, William A. Clough; Chapel Cafe, Mrs. Otis C. Severance and Mrs. Robert R. Thackeray; country store, Mrs. Norbert L. Sell; flowers and vegetables, Mr. and Mrs. Newell T. Eames; food, Mrs. Lionel Sequeira and Mrs. Robley Buckman; hobbies and crafts, Miss Alice Phinney.

Also, hot dogs and cold drinks, Charles E. Woodcock, III and Kevin Morrison; imports, Mrs. Robert O. Broomhead; jewelry, Mrs. Louis Corey; midway, Bradford N.

EXHIBIT AT ART CENTER

Variety will be one of the attractions of the next show at Cecil Clark Davis Gallery of the Marion Art Center as the work of Ellen Michaud goes on display June 30th. This talented artist presents work in sand-casting, acrylics, collage, watercolor, macrame, mixed media and prints.

Her major at Rhode Island School of Design was mural techniques and she has always been interested in a media that relates to space and architecture such as sandcasting, painting as a way of creating interior space, color and texture and graphics because of the variety of things that can be done.

Mrs. Michaud's watercolor technique is best described "as a direct response to nature and exterior space" she says, "with the traditional materials used as a kind of visual shorthand".

Most recently the artist has studied in

CHURCH ON THE HARBOR

St. Philip's Church (Episcopal), on the waterfront next to the Mattapoisett bathing beach, will open for Sunday worship, July 2nd, and will continue throughout the summer. The Rev. Frederick Q. Shafer, chaplain of Bard College, Anandale - on Hudson, New York, will again be Rector for the month of July. His return is eagerly awaited by the many from all faiths who enjoyed his approach to matters spiritual in former seasons. Mr. Shafer, constantly in contact with the rising generation in his college chaplaincy while consenting to part of what is current, preaches also what is basic to the Christian faith.

Holy Communion will be celebrated twice on July 2nd. The regular 8 o'clock Sunday service of communion is the first. Then, at 10 o'clock, Mr. Shafer will conduct the service of morning prayer and sermon. Continuous, following this, the second celebration of the Holy Sacrament will take place, as is standard the first Sunday of each month.

Mattapoisett looks forward to welcoming the Shafer family again. Mrs. Shafer, known in the publishing world as the Purpose of the program is to help the student who has shown through past performance the need to strengthen his basic communication skills and who, for other reasons, may be generally uninterested in the learning process.

Participants are recommended to the program director by principals, subject matter teachers and guidance personnel. The chief student credential for selection is a willingness to become involved in the six-week program.

The workshop is centered on two basic units of study this summer: economics of Southeastern Massachusetts and the cultural output in the same area. Students in the program will study the fishing, boatbuilding, cranberry and textile industries at the same time they are visiting museums, galleries and theaters.

Using a teacher-directed, student-centered approach, the Living History Program will run from July 6 through August 17. Weekly activities call for three 8 A.M. to 4 P.M. field trips and two 8 A.M. to noon-time classroom sessions.

According to Director Normand, the long-range goal of the program is to provide the participants an atmosphere in which each student can nurture his communication skills, achieve success and develop a corresponding pride, sense of responsibility, and positive outlook on life.

While most of the places in the program have been taken up, there are still several openings. Those students interested, or interested parents, are invited to telephone Mr. Normand at the Old Rochester Regional High School for further information.

In the photograph displaying the silver is Georgette Owen, a judge in the Fine Arts area.

Mrs. Owen, a resident of Acushnet, is a traditionalist who every once in a while flares out into impressionism. She has exhibited in several group shows, 2-man shows (with her husband, Walter E. Owen) and one-man shows. Among her awards is the Best-in Show of the Portuguese Art Festival in the professional category.

On the right is Mr. Walter Owen, director of art of New Bedford and well-known watercolorist and caricaturist in the art circles. Mr. Owen has just returned from Rome, Florence and Venice escorting a group of 60 students from the New Bedford Public Schools, viewing museums and architecture in Italy. His work is in private collections all over the country and he will be exhibiting his outstanding watercolors at the Festival.

HONORARY DEGREE TO FORMER MATT. RESD.

Mt Holyoke College recently awarded an honorary degree to Dr. Helen S. Mitchell, noted nutritionist, internationally known, and whose voice on the radio was familiar to many in this and other areas. Dr. Mitchell made her home in Mattapoisett for a number of years before moving to Amherst where she now resides. Earlier she was Dean of Women at the University of Massachusetts, before its college status had been broadened to "University". In making the award, Mt. Holyoke pointed out that Dr. Mitchell was the first of her class of 1917 to receive a doctorate, which in this case was from Yale University.

Dr. Mitchell and Mrs. John W. DeBoer, also formerly of Mattapoisett and retired director of the New Bedford YWCA, were recent house guests of Mrs. Edward T. Sears of Orchard Lane, Mattapoisett. They also were entertained at tea at the home of Miss Lydie LeB. Walker, North Street.

Senator George McGovern's campaign propaganda and speeches convey the impression that his opinions have never been other than the regular Democratic kind.

We oldsters recall the years when Vice-President Henry Wallace was mentioned by concerned citizens of both major parties as "only a heartbeat from the Presidency". Especially, regular Democrats were indignant with such former Democrats as Mr. McGovern, who became active in behalf of Henry Wallace's Third Party (Progressive). He was in the Illinois delegation to the Progressive Party's Convention in 1948, when former President Truman was the Democratic candidate for re-election.

In 1959, Mr. McGovern, then a Congressman, wrote a lengthy biographical sketch for Good Housekeeping with the 1948 campaign and the changes in political philosophy he was supposed to have undergone, not being discussed!

Miss Kathleen Kennedy, twenty years old, and daughter of the late Senator Robert Kennedy, recently addressed a group in Brooklyn, New York, in support of Senator McGovern's candidacy. She said he had supported Henry Wallace for President in 1948. She then added that Henry Wallace "was a Communist, and I guess Senator McGovern was a Communist then, too, but he isn't any more. Personally, I don't think you have to worry if someone is a Communist. Some people have one point of view and other people another point of view".

Former Representative Allard Lowenstein, now a McGovern aide, jumped to his feet to say that McGovern was never a Communist, and those who said so were speaking out of ignorance, and "trying to confuse you". Asked about McGovern's stand on Revenue-Sharing, Miss Kennedy further confused her audience by responding, "Yes, yeah, well you know he had, uh, I don't know what it is. I'm sure he has something. I'll look it up".

I'm beginning to wonder if my opinion of many years' standing, that young persons of eighteen were old enough to vote, was right or wrong.
